Weight in relation to depth gives water content of snow. At right, winter chowtime at 9800 feet elevation can have all comforts of home. Mitchell pours out steaming cup of soup for Clegg. Snow-mobile was developed by Irrigation Division engineers, Logan Survey showed definite flood threct, above-average water for Provo River Valley.

On a snow-measuring trip to the Lakes.